get personal.

Why be boxed in by convention when being yourself is so beautiful—and simple. Decorative mouldings by Diamond® transform ho-hum spaces into individual showcases of style and functionality. Play with unique combinations of proportions and dimensions to boldly (or quietly) call out forgotten areas of interest. Or reinforce a countertop and look good doing it. Whatever your personal motives or motif, Diamond decorative mouldings are an enlightened way to architecturally define your kitchen without triggering costly demolition. A concept perfectly suited to you.

decorative legs

The height of creativity.

A supporting role under your elevated laundry room countertop. The signature flourish in your kitchen island masterpiece. The toast of your new wet bar, perhaps. Take your design aspirations to the next level with thoughtfully crafted, natural wood Diamond decorative leg mouldings. Available in traditional, contemporary and mission styles.

decorative feet

Have an idea? Run with it.

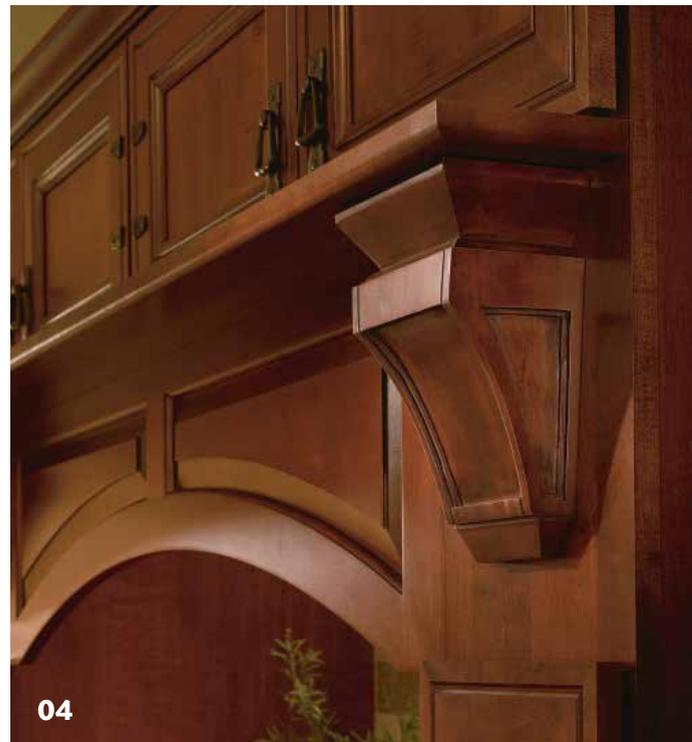

Invite the warm aesthetic of a well-appointed living room into your kitchen with Diamond furniture-grade decorative feet. Place them under select cabinetry to raise the design bar, if not your kitchen island. Or allow classic styling to tip-toe into your contemporary kitchen plans. Curious? Great. You've already taken the first step..

A pattern emerges.

As any accomplished architect will tell you, the creative process is just that—a process. Ideas take shape, plans are drawn, and the building begins. Our advice: Define your needs then trust your gut. Review your options and rethink your assumptions. Most importantly, enjoy yourself. With so many quality choices available, you can't go wrong.
